(Entered into force Dec. 19, 2017)

Chapter I General Provisions

Article 1 (Purpose)

The purpose of this Act is to protect individuals from radiation disasters stemming from the generation and use of nuclear power and to contribute to both the public safety and environmental conservation by establishing a Nuclear Safety and Security Commission.

Article 2 (Principles of Operation)

The Nuclear Safety and Security Commission shall maintain its independence and impartiality, prepare necessary measures for safety management (hereinafter referred to as “safety management of nuclear power”) in the research, development, generation, and use of nuclear power (hereinafter referred to as “use of nuclear power”), and endeavor to enforce such measures.

Chapter II Establishment, etc. of the Nuclear Safety and Security Commission

Article 3 (Establishment of Commission)

(1) The Nuclear Safety and Security Commission (hereinafter referred to as the “Commission”) shall be established under the authority of the Prime Minister in order to conduct affairs related to the safety of nuclear power.

(2) The Commission shall be deemed a central administrative agency under Article 2 of the Government Organization Act: Provided, That Article 18 of the Government Organization Act shall not apply to the following matters:

1. Matters regarding granting of permission, renewal of permission, authorization, approval, registration, revocation, etc. in regard to users of nuclear power under subparagraph 5 of Article 12;
2. Matters regarding the election of the executives of the Korea Institute of Nuclear Safety and the appointment of a President under Articles 9 (4) and 11 (2) of the Korea Institute of Nuclear Safety Act;
3. Matters regarding the approval of the executives of the Korea Institute of Nuclear Nonproliferation and Control under Article 6 (5) of the Nuclear Safety Act;
4. Other matters necessary for the guarantee of independence in safety management of nuclear power as specified by Presidential Decree.

Article 4 (Composition, etc. of the Commission)

(1) The Commission shall be comprised of nine members, including a single chairperson (hereinafter referred to as the “Commission chairperson”). The Commission chairperson and one member shall be standing members.

(2) The Commission chairperson shall be considered public officials in political service.

(3) Notwithstanding Article 10 of the Government Organization Act, the standing members shall serve as government delegates.

Article 5 (Appointment and commission etc. of Commission members)

(1) Commission members shall be appointed or commissioned from among those with broad knowledge and experience in nuclear power safety. In such cases,

Commission members shall be evenly from relevant fields, such as nuclear power, the environment, public health, medicine, science, technology, public safety, law, humanities, and social science, who are able to contribute to the safety of nuclear power.

(2) The Commission chairperson shall be appointed by the President of the Republic of Korea at the request of the Prime Minister; four Commission members including the standing member shall be appointed or commissioned by President of the Republic of Korea at the request of the Commission chairperson and other four Commission members shall be appointed or commissioned by President at the request of the National Assembly.

(3) Matters necessary for the appointment or commissioning of Commission members and other matters regarding the composition of the Commission shall be prescribed by Presidential Decree.

Article 6 (Chairperson)

(1) The Commission chairperson shall represent the Commission, preside over Commission meetings, and hold overall control over administrative affairs within his/her remit.

(2) If necessary, the Commission chairperson may attend meetings of the State Council in order to express his/her opinions and may recommend that the Prime Minister present bills regarding administrative affairs within his/her remit.

(3) The Commission chairperson may attend meetings of the National Assembly in order to express his/her opinions on administrative affairs within his/her remit and may attend meetings of the National Assembly in order to report or answer questions upon request by the National Assembly.

(4) If the Commission chairperson is unable to perform his/her duties, the standing member shall act on behalf of the Commission chairperson, and if all standing committee members are unable to perform their duties or a committee member designated in advance by the Committee shall act on behalf of the Commission chairperson.

(5) If during the performance of his/her duties the Commission chairperson violates the Constitution of the Republic of Korea or any Act, the National Assembly may resolve to impeach him/her.

Article 7 (Term of Office of Commission Members)

(1) The term of office for each Commission member shall be three years and may be renewed only once.

(2) When there is a vacant seat in the Commission, a new member shall be commissioned or appointed; however, the term of office shall be calculated from the date on which he/she is commissioned or appointed. <Newly inserted, 2017. 12. 19.>

Article 8 (Guarantee of Status, etc.)

(1) Except in the following cases, no Commission member shall be dismissed from office against his/her will:

1. Where a Commission member is unable to perform his/her duties for an extended period due to a mental or physical disorder;
2. Where a Commission member is disqualified on grounds under Article 10;
3. Where a Commission member breaches any of his/her official duties under this Act or any other Act;
4. Where a Commission member derives any unjust enrichment in connection with his/her duties in the Committee under this or any other Act.

(2) No Commission member shall be subject to unjust instruction or interference.

Article 9 (Prohibition on Holding of Concurrent Office, etc.)

(1) No standing member shall engage in any business activity for profit, other than his/her public service, or concurrently hold any other office.

(2) No Commission member shall engage in political activities.

(3) Necessary matters regarding limitations on business activities for profit under paragraph (1) shall be prescribed by Presidential Decree.

Article 10 (Disqualifications)

(1) No person who falls under any of the following subparagraphs shall be considered qualified to serve as a Commission member:

1. A person who falls under any subparagraph of Article 33 of the State Public Officials Act;
2. A person who has been expelled in accordance with a resolution of impeachment;
3. A member of a party under Article 22 of the Political Parties Act;
4. A person who has served or is serving as the head or as an employee of a user of nuclear power or an organization of users of nuclear power within the preceding three years;
5. A person who has been or is involved in a project conducted by a user of nuclear power or an organization of users of nuclear power within the preceding three years, such as projects entrusted as research and development tasks by users of nuclear power or an organization of users of nuclear power.

(2) If a Commission member falls under any subparagraph of paragraph (1), he/she shall be automatically dismissed from office.

Chapter III Administrative Affairs of the Commission

Article 11 (Administrative Affairs of the Commission)

(1) The administrative affairs within the remit of the Commission shall be as follows:

1. Matters regarding safety management of nuclear power;
2. Matters regarding research and development for safety management of nuclear power;
3. Other matters specified by this Act or any other Act as administrative affairs of the Commission.

(2) Further details of administrative affairs of the Commission under paragraph (1) shall be prescribed by Presidential Decree.

Article 12 (Matters subject to Deliberation and Resolution by the Commission)

The Commission shall deliberate on and determine the following matters among the administrative affairs within its remit:

1. Synthesizing and coordination of matters regarding safety management of nuclear power;
2. Matters regarding the establishment of comprehensive plans for nuclear power safety under Article 3 of the Nuclear Safety Act;
3. Matters regarding regulation of nuclear materials and nuclear reactors;
4. Matters regarding prevention of and response to hazards caused by radioactive exposure in the use of nuclear power;
5. Matters regarding granting of permission, renewal of permission, authorization, approval, registration, revocation, etc. related to users of nuclear power;
6. Matters regarding measures against prohibited activities of users of nuclear power and the imposition of penalty surcharges;
7. Matters regarding estimation and allocation plans for expenses stemming

- from safety management of nuclear power;
8. Matters regarding surveys, tests, research, and development in regard to safety management of nuclear power;
 9. Matters regarding the education and training of researchers and engineers for safety management of nuclear power;
 10. Matters regarding safety management of radioactive waste;
 11. Matters regarding countermeasures against radiation disasters;
 12. Matters regarding international cooperation in safety of nuclear power;
 13. Matters regarding the formulation and execution of the budget of the Commission;
 14. Matters regarding the enactment, amendment, and repeal of relevant Acts, subordinate statutes, and Commission Decree;
 15. Matters specified by this Act or other Act as matters subject to deliberation and resolution by the Commission.

Chapter IV Operation of the Commission

Article 13 (Meetings)

- (1) A meeting of the Commission shall be convened by the Commission chairperson when two or more Commission members so request: Provided, That the Commission chairperson may convene a meeting upon his/her sole discretion.
- (2) A meeting of the Commission shall adopt a resolution through an affirmative vote of the majority of incumbent members.
- (3) Any Commission member may propose an agenda item.
- (4) The sessions of the Commission shall be disclosed. In cases falling under any of the following, however, the Commission sessions may not be disclosed based on its resolution:
 1. When it is feared that national security may be damaged
 2. When the agenda is classified as secret under other statutes or the agenda includes information whose disclosure is restricted
 3. When it is feared that the reputation of an individual, corporation or organization may be damaged or legitimate benefits may be damaged
 4. When it is feared that serious damage may be caused to the fair performance of duties as the matters are related to supervision, audit or human resources management

(5) has been deleted. <1 December 2015>

(6) Other necessary matters regarding the operation of meetings of the Commission shall be prescribed by Commission Decree.

Article 13-2 (Preparation of minutes etc.)

(1) The Commission shall prepare and archive its meeting minutes and recordings.

(2) The minutes shall be prepared by stenographers.

(3) The minutes shall be disclosed by the day of the next meeting unless there exists an extraordinary reason for not doing so, including cases where an emergency meeting is convened urgently following the closure of a meeting.

(4) The contents of the minutes and recordings shall not be deleted. If any phrase is corrected or withdrawn based on the statement of the relevant person, it shall be indicated in the minutes.

(5) The Commission Rules shall provide other necessary matters for the preparation and archiving of the minutes and their recordings.

Article 13-3 (The audience at the meeting etc.)

(1) Any person who wishes to listen to the Commission's meetings as an observer shall obtain the chairperson's prior approval.

(2) The chairperson may order the observers to leave the meeting room as required to maintain good order.

Article 14 (Recusal, Challenge and Evasion of Commission Members)

(1) If a Commission member falls under any of the following subparagraphs, he/she shall be recused from performance of his/her duties:

1. If a Commission member or a person who is or was his/her spouse is a party to a case at issue or is a joint right holder or an obligor in a case at issue;
2. If a Commission member is or was a relative of a party to a case at issue;
3. If a Commission member served as a witness or an expert witness in a case at issue;
4. If a Commission member is or was involved as the agent of a party to a case at issue;
5. If a Commission member was involved in the disposition or inaction that is a case at issue.

(2) The Commission shall determine such recusals upon its discretion or at the request of a party to a case at issue.

(3) If there exist grounds to believe that it is impractical to expect impartiality from a Commission member in deliberation and resolution, a party to a case at issue may file a challenge and the Commission shall decide thereon by resolution.

(4) A Commission member may voluntarily evade a case at issue if he/she demonstrates grounds under paragraph (1) or (3).

Article 15 (Establishment of Special Committees)

(1) If it is necessary to seek working-level advice on the administrative affairs of the Commission, conduct preliminary reviews of matters subject to deliberation and resolution, or efficiently conduct administrative affairs delegated by the Commission, the Commission may establish special committees falling under its jurisdiction.

(2) Necessary matters regarding the composition and operation of special committees under paragraph (1) shall be prescribed by Presidential Decree.

Article 16 (Annual Reports)

(1) The Commission shall submit to the National Assembly a report on the Commission's performance of affairs for each fiscal year within three months of the end of each fiscal year.

(2) The Commission shall publish this report under paragraph (1): Provided, That the Commission may choose not to publish it by resolution, if there are reasonable grounds to believe that publishing the report would be improper.

Article 17 (Secretariat)

(1) The Commission shall establish a secretariat to manage administrative affairs.

(2) The secretariat shall employ a secretary general who shall be appointed by the Commission chairperson and other employees as needed.

(3) Employees of the secretariat shall be public officials in general service in relevant series of classes, but public officials outside the relevant series of classes may be placed in the secretariat, as prescribed by Presidential Decree.

(4) Other matters necessary for the organization and operation of the secretariat shall be prescribed by Presidential Decree.

Article 18 (Duty of Integrity)
